Nevada County Genealogical Society

In December 1989, the Nevada County Genealogical Society was organized by a small group of people with a shared interest in genealogy and a desire to encourage and help each other. These organizers, both experienced and novice researchers, also shared a commitment to professionalism.

As stated in the bylaws, the purpose of the Nevada County Genealogical Society is:

- to pursue the research of one's personal family lineage and to assist others in their pursuit of same
- to help benefit the community with projects related to preserving our past
- to preserve records and documents related to genealogy for future generations
- to educate the public in the science of genealogy

The NCGS holds it's meetings in the Community Room of the Nevada County Library on Helling Way, Nevada City (near The Rood Center):

General Meetings from 1:00 to 2:30 pm the second Tuesday of every month.
